

Braughm Ricke

Braughm Rick is the CFO at K9 Ventures.

Prior to founding Aduro Advisors, Braughm was a founding member of True Ventures, a seed and early-stage technology venture capital firm, where he was CFO. He has also acted as interim CFO to multiple startups such as GigaOm, about.me, and Likeit.com. He began his career in Venture Capital in 1999 as Controller of Sofinnova Ventures, an early-stage life science and information technology venture capital firm. In 2004, Braughm joined 5AM Ventures, a seed and early-stage life science venture firm.

He holds a BS in Accounting from Plymouth State University and has completed graduate studies at the University of California Davis. When he is not keeping the financials in order, he is spending time with his wife and three kids, mountain biking, or skiing.